THE OFFICIAL SELECTION ANALYSIS FOR NATIONAL ICE HOCKEY
MEN'S & WOMEN'S TEAM 2023

BUSINESS CASE

Hockey Canada (NCA) are seeking your help to finalize their men's and women's hockey team for matches to be played in 2023. The final team is selected based on a number of criteria such as age, past performance, number of years of experience, health and fitness.

The information is available in various databases and you as an analyst need to consolidate, clean-up, analyze and present your recommendation on the final 11 players for the 4 teams. While conducting in mind you need to keep the following in mind:

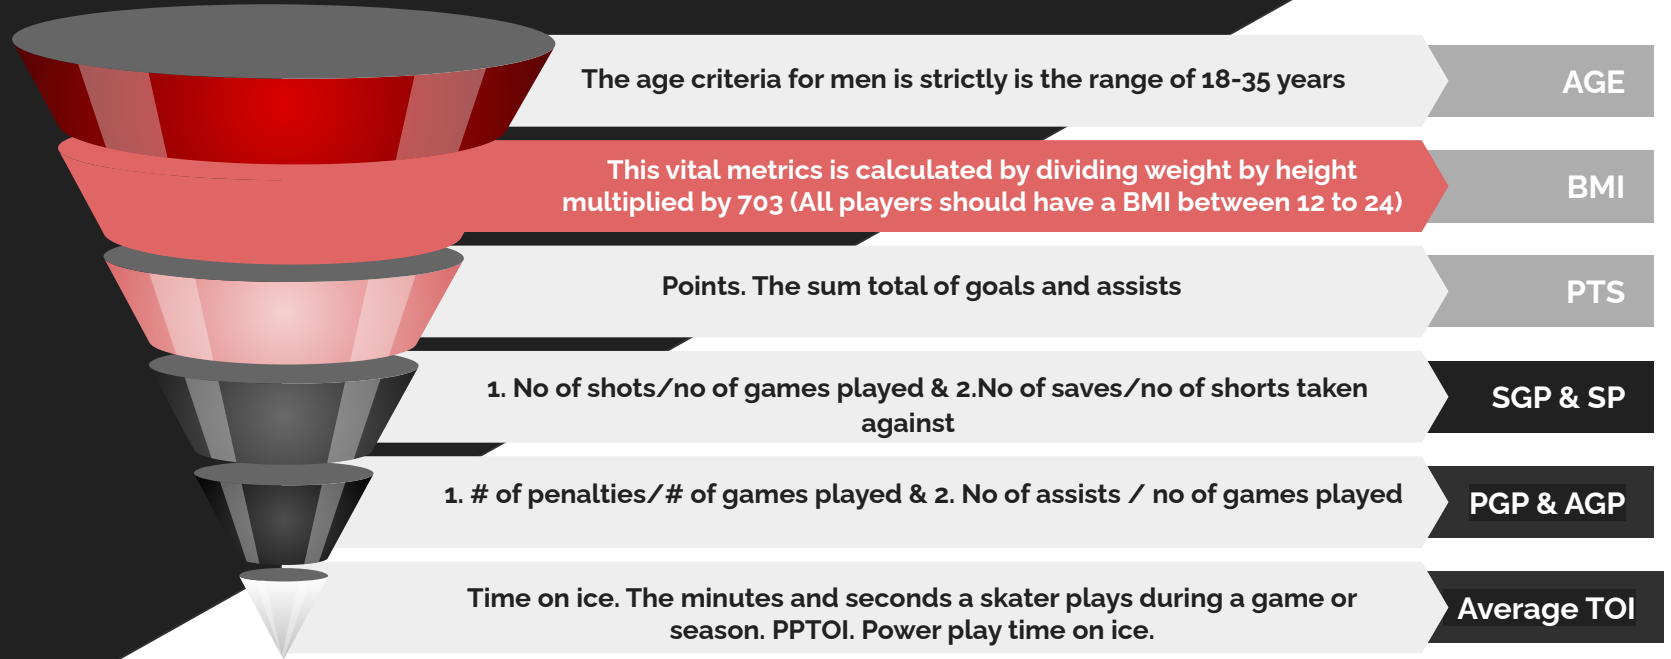

1. Each team will have 12 center-forwards, 8 defenders, and 2 goalkeeper
2. All players should be within the age group of 20 to 35 ONLY
3. Fitness standards are extremely high. BMI index of a forward player can range between 20 – 24. BMI index of a defender can range between 20 – 27. BMI can be calculated with the below formula
(Weight in pounds / (height in inches x height in inches) x 703)

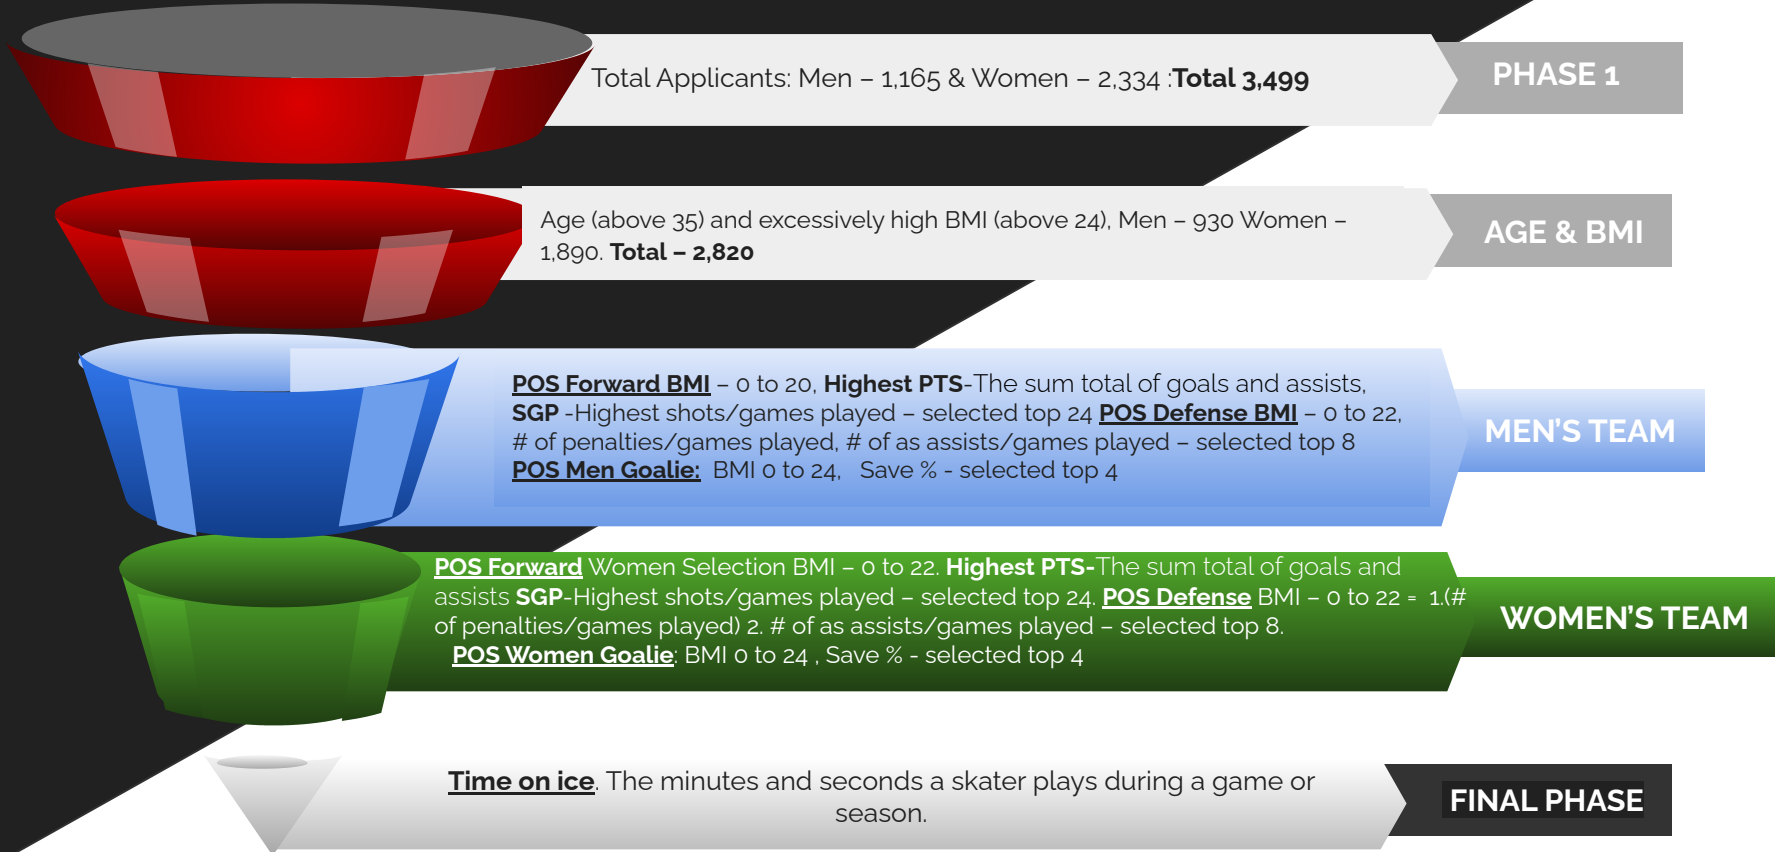

BUSINESS CASE

1. The players can be lined up by giving weightage to :
 - a. BMI
 - b. Age
 - c. PTS
 - d. SGP
 - e. SP
 - f. GP
 - g. AGP
 - h. TOI
2. Kindly present to the association your final recommendations along with an overview of the fitness levels of players in Canada
3. Distribution of eligible players across the provinces
4. Players belonging to team positions will have variable metric for performance assessment.
5. The association is very inclusive and it would like to ensure maximum inclusivity. We would like to ensure the players are picked from as many different states as possible

BUSINESS SOLUTION

The selection committee has used tools like MS Excel and Tableau and conducted a step by step process to arrive at the top 22 players in the men's and women's hockey teams

The three criteria that have been taken care of include:

- Physical fitness & Endurance
- Game stats over the life of the player
- Physiological fitness

The selection committee eliminated players along each step of the way and finalized the final team
